

Chesterfield County Senior Ambassadors

Chesterfield County
Senior Advocate

Chesterfield County Senior Ambassadors is a free, eight-week program that allows older adults to use their skills and talents to become ambassadors for their community. The once-a-year program is coordinated through the Chesterfield County Senior Advocate's office each fall.

Through guest lectures, site visits and special programs, Senior Ambassadors provides a snapshot of the county's cultural, historical, educational and governmental landscape. Those who complete the program enrich themselves by:

- broadening their knowledge of the county,
- learning about volunteer opportunities,
- making new friends who share their same interests.

Graduates of the program will be able to bring about positive change in their community through volunteerism, education and advocacy.

What are the requirements to participate?

Senior Ambassadors is for adults 55 and older who reside in Chesterfield County. The program requires attendance one day a week for eight weeks. Participants will be selected by lottery.

Details:

The number of participants in each class is limited to 15. There is no fee to enroll.

To request an application or more information about Chesterfield County Senior Ambassadors, contact Senior Advocate Debbie Leidheiser at 804-768-7878 or leidheiserd@chesterfield.gov.

This program is sponsored by: Chesterfield County, Chesterfield County Senior Advocate, Chesterfield County Public Schools, Chesterfield Chamber of Commerce, CJW Medical Center, Heritage Financial Consultants.

